This event produced recommendations for research priority orientations, and for the renewal of its practices and governance.
As part of the International Year of Family Farming (IYFF) declared by the United Nations for 2014, the research institutions of Montpellier’s hub (Agropolis International) have taken the initiative to organize International Encounters from June 1st to 3rd, 2014, in Montpellier.

This event was co-organized with the CGIAR Consortium, the Global Forum on Agriculture Research (GFAR) and the World Rural Forum (WRF) and was supported by the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Development, the French Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Forestry and various national and international organizations.

235 participants from 70 countries, representatives of farmers, NGO, decision makers from the political and private sectors, and trainers and researchers, gathered in Montpellier.

Proceedings of these International encounters are available online: http://l.agropolis.fr/encountersmontpellier in a trilingual version: French, English and Spanish.

On request by email (communication@agropolis.fr), the printed document may be sent by post.
